

Ali Izadian

Bio Ali Izadian, Ph.D.

Dr. Ali Izadian serves as the Associate Vice President of Capital Programming and Facilities Management at California State University, Fullerton. He has more than 30 years of experience at distinguished educational and municipal institutions, including years of accumulated service in the California State University, Community College, and K-12 systems.

Through leadership roles at three California State University campuses, Dr. Izadian has developed broad expertise in administration and finance, capital development, planning, design and construction; sustainability, environmental health and safety, facility management and operations. He has been responsible for managing several campuses infrastructure developments and operational expenditures (over $2 billion accumulated) throughout all phases of goal setting, strategic financial planning, and implementation.

Dr. Izadian has extensive involvement in public-private partnerships, leading three universities' master planning process, participating in strategic planning efforts, WSCUC Accreditation, and serving as a member on the University Board of Directors for Auxiliary Student Union.

Dr. Izadian holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from Claremont Graduate University and an M.P.A. and B.S. in Civil Engineering from the University of Colorado. Dr. Izadian has taught undergraduate and graduate-level courses in public policy and research methods at both Cal State Northridge and Cal State Sacramento.